ROUTINE NOTES.

[To be used only for notes, requisitions, etc., not intended for permanent record.]

Submitted.

From the 9th to 28th instant(bot days inclusive), I was in charge of the duties of the Local and Legislati Secretary in addition to my own. I need hardly add that it involved considerable addition to my work. I ha had to work over-time both in the morr ing and in the evening in order to ge through my work. In view of this, I beg to request that I may be permit to draw the duty allowance attached to the appointment of the Local and Legislative Secretary, in addition to my own. Such a concession has been shown on previous occasions when Messrs. Matthan and Balasundaram Iyer were in charge of the duties of the ~~Chief~~ Secretary.

I shall be obliged if papers relating to these cases are put up for ref: Mrs 30/5/11

Please see Article 98, M.S.R. No extra remuneration is admissible according to it for the additional charge. The precedents put up which support the request, are departures from the rule laid down in Article 98.

I think the principle of Article 98 requires some modification. It is apparently based upon the assumption that an additional charge in the same office or establishment is generally held for only a short period and does not, therefore, call for extra remuneration. Where, however, the period of the charge is not a few days and the work devolved is not pure routine, the claim to additional remuneration is, I think, reasonable. ~~I~~ the grant of Duty Allowance in such circumstances, both to the absentee on leave and to the officer performing the duties of the charge would result in additional expenditure which it is desirable to avoid. I would, in the ~~x~~ above circumstances, suggest that no additional remuneration may be given when the period of charge is 15 days or less and where it exceeds this limit, the Duty Allowance attached to the appointment ~~xx~~ may be divided equally between the absentee and the officer actually performing the duties of the post.

But the absentee is entitled to the whole of the allowance under the existing rule.

On further Consideration, it seems to be some day ruling should be passed on the point embodied in C.S. Rep.

I think the

When a Secy to Govt or Head of Dept is subordinate to the Govt of an other Secy Dept — who enjoys a drawing Duty all. the Head of the Dept may draw the full Duty all. allotted to his post — pro rata for the period — for the actual no of days he happened the additional duty —

In the present case Duty all for 20 days at the rate of Rs 500. may be sanctioned Proceedings of the Government of H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore.

Read:--

O. M. No.3544/C.B.57-23-4 dated 10th May 1924 placing Mr.K.V.Anantaraman, Revenue Secretary to Government, in charge of the duties of the Secretary to Government, Local and Legislative Departments, in addition to his own during the absence of Mr. B. Nagappa, on 20 days' privilege leave from the 9th May 1924.

2. Representation dated 29th May 1924 from Mr. K.V.Anantaraman, Revenue Secretary to Government, requesting that he may be permitted to draw the duty allowance attached to the appointment of the Local and Legislative Secretary, ~~in addition to his own~~ during the period he remained in charge of the duties of that office.

ORDER No. 157-2/C.B. 57-23-4
Dated, 22nd July 1924.

Under Article 98 of the Mysore Service Regulations no extra remuneration is admissible for the additional charge. Government however consider that the principle of Article 98 requires some modification. It is apparently based upon the assumption that an additional charge in the same office or establishment is generally held for only a short period and does not, therefore, call for extra remuneration. Where, however, the period of the charge is not a few days and the work devolved is not pure routine, the claim to additional remuneration is reasonable. Government are ~~accordingly~~ pleased to direct that when a Secretary to Government of other officer of the Secrett is entrusted with the duties of another Secretary or other officer, who ~~enjoys~~ draws a duty allowance, in addition to his own emoluments for a period exceeding 15 days, he ~~should~~ may be permitted to draw the duty allowance attached to the ~~post~~ Cadre of Secretaries for the actual period he has performed the additional duty.

Necessary amendments will be made to Article 98 of the Mysore Service Regulations.

In the present case Mr. K.V.Anantaraman will be permitted to draw at the rate of Rs.150/- per mensem for the 20 days he remained in charge of the duties of the Local and Legislative Secretary in addition to his own emoluments.
